About this manual

Kundlistar brings multiple Indian astrology, numerology, timing, and guidance systems into one app. This manual helps you open a saved chart, move between systems, understand generated analyses, and download supported reports. Use it for self-exploration, demonstrations, and guided consultations. Report availability may depend on login, selected chart, completed profile details, subscription access, and module settings.

Why users choose Kundlistar

- One profile can be used across many supported astrology systems.
- Multiple downloadable reports support consultations and follow-up.
- Vedic Numerology and Lo Shu are available separately and together.
- Advanced timing, transit, KP, Nadi, BNN, Jaimini, Lal Kitab, and Vastu tools are available in one place.
- Screens and reports make complex analysis easier to understand and share.

Before you begin

- Create or open a saved chart before using chart-linked systems.
- Sign in before downloading PDF or user reports.
- For numerology reports, date of birth and full name are required; mobile number is optional.
- Use astrology as guidance and a spiritual perspective, not as a replacement for professional advice.

Complete downloadable report guide

The following report types are available in the demonstrated product surfaces. A report appears only when its required inputs, result, access, and module configuration are available.

Report	How to generate
Standard Kundli PDF Report	Open a saved chart and select PDF. The report can include the selected chart modules and astrology sections.
User Kundli Report	Open a saved chart and select the orange report button to prepare a shareable Kundli report for the user.
Complete Numerology Report	Calculate the numerology profile with date of birth and full name, then choose the full report. It combines Vedic Numerology and Lo Shu output.
Vedic Numerology Only Report	Calculate the Vedic Numerology profile and choose the dedicated Vedic-only download.
Lo Shu Only Report	Calculate the Lo Shu Grid with date of birth and full name, then choose the dedicated Lo Shu download.
Faladesh PDF	Generate Faladesh for the loaded chart and use its PDF action for the available interpretation sections.
Matching Report PDF	Enter and calculate both profiles in Matching, then download the generated compatibility report.
Astro Vastu PDF	Complete the Astro Vastu analysis and select Download PDF.
Lal Kitab Advanced Report	Open Lal Kitab for the loaded chart and review Janam Kundli, Drishti, Varshphal, Age Period, and Teva sections. Use the available PDF or user-report action.
Tajika Varshphal Yearly Report	Generate the selected year's Tajika Varshphal analysis. Report access can depend on the loaded chart and subscription.
User Management PDFs	Open User Management and use the PDF action on supported saved profiles, consultations, or report files.

Analyses generated inside the app

These modules generate detailed results on screen. When a PDF or report action is visible for the loaded chart, use it to create the configured report.

Area	Generated analyses

Numerology report checklist

- Enter the correct date of birth.
- Enter the full name; it is required for report download.
- Add a mobile number only when mobile correction is needed.
- Calculate the result before downloading a complete or system-only report.
- Choose Complete, Vedic Only, or Lo Shu Only according to the consultation.

Practical tips

- Save each user profile with a clear name before starting analysis.
- Verify date, exact birth time, place, timezone, and coordinates before generating a report.
- Calculate or refresh the module result before selecting its report button.
- For numerology, enter the person's complete commonly used name; add the mobile number only when required.
- Choose the system-only numerology report for a focused consultation and the complete report for a broader overview.
- Use Manual Transit when reviewing a specific event date.
- Review the PDF once before sharing so the selected chart and user name are correct.
- Explain that the app presents multiple astrological perspectives; differences between systems are part of their methods.
- Keep the app updated to receive new systems, fixes, and report improvements.
- Use a stable internet connection for longer PDF generation.

Frequently asked questions

Do I need to create a new chart every time?

No. Open Saved Charts and reuse the required profile across supported systems.

Why is a report button not visible?

Confirm that you are signed in, a chart is loaded, required details are complete, and your plan includes that report.

What is required for numerology reports?

Date of birth and full name are required. A mobile number is optional unless mobile-number analysis is needed.

Which new numerology reports are available?

Complete Numerology, Vedic Numerology Only, and Lo Shu Only reports are available from the respective calculated results.

Can I generate a report for another user?

Yes. Open the saved chart and use its report action, or manage supported profiles through User Management.

Can I choose a different transit date?

Yes. Use Manual mode in natal and transit views or the Manual Transit module.

Why do results change after editing birth details?

Astrological calculations depend on the entered date, exact time, place, coordinates, timezone, and selected settings.

Are all features included in every plan?

No. Some advanced tools and reports may require Premium access, an allowance, or a separate report add-on.

Can reports be shared?

Download the supported PDF and share it through the normal sharing options on your device.

Are predictions guaranteed?

No. Kundlistar provides astrological and numerological insights for guidance and reflection.

Troubleshooting

Problem	What to do
Chart does not open	Return to Saved Charts, confirm the profile exists, and reopen it. If needed, restart the app.
Wrong date, time, or place	Edit the saved profile, correct the details, save, and recalculate the required modules.
Numerology report is disabled	Enter a valid date of birth and full name, calculate the result, and then select the report.
Mobile analysis is missing	Enter the mobile number in the numerology form and calculate again.
PDF does not generate	Check login, subscription/report allowance, internet connection, and storage permission; then retry once.
Transit result is for the wrong moment	Select the correct place, timezone, date, and time in Manual mode and recalculate.
A premium module is locked	Open the plan screen and confirm that the signed-in account has the required entitlement.
Report shows an old result	Recalculate after editing the profile, then generate a new PDF rather than sharing the earlier file.
App screen looks different	Update Kundlistar from Google Play. Feature placement can change as the app improves.

When contacting support

- Share the registered account email, app version, device model, affected module, and a screenshot of the message.
- For calculation questions, also share the exact birth date, birth time, place, timezone, and selected settings. Do not share passwords or payment credentials.

Responsible use
